OCTOBER 15, 1767. THE NUMBER 856.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

With the lateſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

The Beaver, Captain Aſhburn, in ſeven weeks from Liverpool, is arrived in James river. From papers by him we have collected the following advices, viz.

BERLIN, July 28.

LAST Saturday evening the marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa Henrietta Wilhelmina of Brandenburg with the reigning Prince of Anhalt Deſſau was ſolemnized in the Royal chapel of Charlottenburg, by the Reverend Mr. Sack, firſt chaplain to the King of Pruſſia, at which ceremony his Majeſty and the reſt of the Royal Family, the foreign Miniſters, and the Nobility, aſſiſted.

Yeſterday in the evening the ceremony of betrothing and exchanging of rings between her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Wilhelmina of Pruſſia and his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange was performed at Charlottenburg in the preſence of his Pruſſian Majeſty and the reſt of the Royal Family, after which the French play called Turcaret was acted in the Orangery. The gardens on this occaſion were illuminated, there was a grand ſupper, and a ball which laſted until this morning, when the King of Pruſſia returned to Potzdam.

COMPEIGNE. July 25. The day before yeſterday the King ſupped with the Duke of York, brother to his Britannick Majeſty.

LONDON, Auguſt 6.

A Gentleman returned from the Eaſt Indies has diſcovered the Chineſe method of extracting colours from ſcarlet, or any other clothes, without the leaſt prejudice to the clothes themſelves; which, it is ſaid, will be of great uſe to the Britiſh manufactures.

We hear from Dover that the port of Dunkirk is now ſo effectually blocked up by cutters that no Engliſh ſmugglers dare put to ſea, though ſome of them have been laden with contraband goods ſeveral days, for fear of being immediately made prizes of.

Wedneſday a painter in Fleur de Lys court, Fleet ſtreet, was examined before Alderman Croſby at Guildhall, charged with ſtarving, beating, and otherwiſe cruelly uſing, in conjunction with his wife, not yet taken, two girls their apprentices, and was committed to Woodſtreet compter. It appeared by the evidence of the youngeſt girl, who is about 14 years of age (the eldeſt not being able to ſpeak) that their miſtreſs uſed to tie them up to a ſtaple and horſewhip them, without any real cauſe; that her maſter never did it, but knew of his wife's cruel behaviour to them; that on Sundays they were locked up in a dark place, under the ſtairs in the cellar; that they had each of them a piece of bread, but nothing to drink, not even ſo much as water. A ſurgeon, who examined the eldeſt girl, declared that the wounds ſhe had received by whipping were ſo bad, for want of dreſſing, that her ſhift had eaten into them, and they appeared as if cut with a knife; that hardly a part of her body was free, and that her head and face were much wounded. The loſs of her ſpeech, the ſurgeon was of opinion, was occaſioned by ſome hurt ſhe had received in the glands of her neck. The youngeſt girl is almoſt reduced to a ſkeleton, much wounded, and is a ſhocking ſpectacle. It is thought the eldeſt cannot recover; they were both ſent to St. Bartholomew's hoſpital. This affair was diſcovered by a journeyman baker, who uſed to hear the cries of the poor girls. It was likewiſe depoſed that the above perſons had made a practice of taking apprentices, but it was not known what became of ſome of them, it being pretended that they were ſent into the country. When the officer went on Tueſday to ſearch the houſe for the eldeſt girl, he was told that ſhe was ſent twenty miles into the country; but on being ſeverely threatened, ſhe was brought from the hole in the cellar.

It is ſaid that the value of the Eaſt India Company's late acquiſitions is eſtimated, at ten years purchaſe, to amount to 50 millions ſterling.

We are informed that ſeveral 20 gun ſhips will ſhortly be put into commiſſion.

On Friday evening, the 23d of July, there happened a very great ſtorm at Paris, which was ſucceeded by thunder and lightning for near two hours, and gave birth to the following whimſical circumſtance. About midnight a certain Gentleman of fortune, newly married, and a bigot, being ſuddenly awaked by his ſpouſe, was ſo terrified that he immediately jumped out of bed, and knowing there was a bottle of holy water in a cloſet of his room, he went to take it out, without any other light than that of the conſtant lightning, and ſoon began to ſprinkle his Lady, himſelf, and even the very furniture, to engage, without doubt, the protection of Providence. The bottle being quite out, and the ſtorm abating a little, he returned to bed pretty well compoſed, and began to value himſelf highly on the efficacy of his operation; but how great was his ſurpriſe when at daylight he awoke and turned towards his Lady, who he found as black as a curl-pated inhabitant of Africa, and all the bedding, tapeſtry, and furniture of the room, of the ſame melancholy complexion. Greatly at a loſs what to think, he at firſt imagined that it was the effect of the lightning; but one of the ſervants coming in, acquainted him that inſtead of taking the bottle of holy water he had ſnatched up a bottle of ink, which ſtood in the ſame cloſet, and emptied it in the place of the conſecrated element. Enraged at his miſtake, which will coſt him a good many louis d'ors, as his furniture was entirely new, he was cured of his ſuperſtition, and ſwore he would have nothing to do with the tricks of the church, as they might poſſibly lead him ſome time or other into freſh errours and diſtreſs.

The Greenland fiſhing in general has proved extremely bad this ſeaſon, occaſioned by the continued north and north eaſt winds in the months of May and June.

There is advice from Corſica that Paoli has threatened the inhabitants of Bonifacio that if they do not immediately repair to his army, he will ſeize all the lands and poſſeſſions belonging to them.

Though no changes in the Adminiſtration were declared on Wedneſday, yet it is currently reported that the following are fixed, and will very ſoon take place, viz. Lord Egmont Preſident of the Council, in the room of Lord Northington, who will retire with a penſion of 2000l. per annum. The Right Hon. Mr. Conway to ſucceed Lord Townſhend (who goes to Ireland) as Maſter of the Ordnance, and to continue Secretary of State ſome time longer. The Earl of Briſtol to be Lord Privy Seal, and Lord Chatham to retire with his 3000l. per annum penſion.

The appointment of Lord Viſcount Townſhend, elder brother to the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, to the important poſt of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, is not a temporary nomination; and it is thought to be a circumſtance that will prove highly agreeable to the Iriſh in general, his Lordſhip having evinced himſelf, on ſeveral occaſions, to be an able ſtateſman, a good ſoldier, a convictive orator, an excellent writer, a diſtinguiſhed patriot, and (of all the moſt valuable) an honeſt man.

We hear the Duke of Gordon, the Earl of Carliſle, and the Earl Strathmore, are fixed on to have the three Green Ribands, vacant by the death of the Marquis of Lothian, the Earl of Hyndford, and the Earl of Moray.

Lord Clive has eſtabliſhed an hoſpital in the Eaſt Indies for ſoldiers, their wives, and children, to which he himſelf generouſly contributed 60,000l. a legacy left him by the Nabob, and obtained from the new Nabob 40,000l. more towards the ſame beneficent purpoſe, which will render its utility amazingly extenſive.

On Saturday, and not before, a patent will be made out, creating Viſcount Townſhend Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, in the room of the Earl of Briſtol, who deſired leave to reſign, after conſulting the Earl of Chatham.

The Right Hon. General Conway is appointed Lieutenant General of the Ordnance (and continue for a time Secretary of the Northern Department) in the room of Lord Townſhend.

It is ſaid Lord Townſhend will be appointed a Marquis of Great Britain, on his return from Ireland. Charles Jenkinſon, Eſq; one of the Lords of the Admiralty, is appointed his principal ſecretary; and ——— Jackſon, Eſq; Uſher ſecretary.

Lord Egmont is appointed Lord Preſident of the Council.

Lord Holland is to be created an Earl, but his title is not yet known.

The Hon. Mr. Phipps, who married the Earl of Briſtol's ſiſter, is to be created Baron Mulgrove.

The Poſtillion, Franklin, from Philadelphia to the Weſt Indies, is loſt at the iſland of Tortola.

A few days ſince died in Scotland Charles Kinnaird, Lord Kinnaird.

Letters from Vienna adviſe that there was much talk there of a claim ſet up by France on the Empreſs Queen, upon account of the late war; but that in order to preſerve the union that happily ſubſiſts between the two Powers, an equivalent had been propoſed, which makes the ſubject of a negotiation now carrying on between thoſe two Courts.

Sunday morning one of the girls that were beaten by their miſtreſs, the painter's wife in Fetter lane, expired in St. Bartholomew's hoſpital, of the wounds ſhe received. The miſtreſs is not yet taken.

The unfortunate painter now in confinement is great grandſon to the immortal Biſhop Burnet. Happy had it been had he taught his wife reformation!

EDINBURGH, July 20. The Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council, of this city, have offered a reward of 200l. ſterling to any perſon or perſons who ſhall diſcover the author or authors of certain incendiary letters ſent ſome days ago to the Right Hon. the Lord Preſident of the Court of Seſſions, threatening to murder his Lordſhip, and burn his houſes in town and country, for the judgment given by him in a cauſe lately depending before that court.

READING, Auguſt 8. It is with the greateſt pleaſure we can aſſure the publick that in this and the neighbouring counties a better proſpect of a plentiful harveſt for all kinds of grain was ſcarce ever remembered; as a proof of which, the few days of fine weather we have had this week paſt have already occaſioned the price of wheat in our market, as well as Henley and Windſor, to fall 20s. in the load. Several fields of wheat are already cut down in the neighbourhood.

VERSES in REPLY to O. Z.

Or the REGIONS of POETRY oppreſſed by a cold unwholeſome MIST.

PARNASSUS having ſeen what Oſad wrote,
After a groan, delivers thus his thought:
" Would you outblow the bluſtering fame of Ben,
" Drown foes in ink, and ſwagger with the pen,
" Maxims I'm now enabled to impart,
" Shall teach you all the writing bully's art.
" Satyr is but a bawling ſhameleſs ſcold,
" Who calls you names, as impotent as bold;
" Regardleſs while her foaming ſtreams invades,
" Whether 'tis ſenſe or nonſenſe ſhe caſcades.
" Rhymers, who pains avoid, are ſure to pleaſe;
" For idleneſs, with men of taſte, is eaſe.
" Of nature's ſluggiſh wing if care aright
" No feather ſettles; you are fit for flight:
" Then Rind for verſe is able to impoſe
" E'en lines too tame for animated proſe;
" And all Etonians, bred to weave the lay
" In wit's alluding loom, are ſons of Gray ——
" My flaſh of mirth is o'er; in heart-felt pain,
" What being long can irony ſuſtain?
" While fogs around my brow their twilight ſhed,
" How owls with ſcreeches rive my drooping head!
" O Burke emit again thy piercing ray,
" And bid thoſe owls revere the God of Day.
" Bid thou retire this nature-clogging gloom,
" Bid thou my flowers expand, my buſhes bloom,
" And birds of rapid wing and warbling throat
" Lift up my mounting ſoul on every note."

WHEREAS there are ſundry lines of counties directed to be run, by the acts of Aſſembly which eſtabliſh thoſe counties, in ſome of which neither courſe nor diſtance are fixed, in others the courſe only; and as ſuch courſes and diſtances would greatly facilitate the general ſurvey of the colony, which is to be begun this month, it is requeſted that all the ſurveyors, who have ſuch lines in their poſſeſſion, would forthwith tranſmit them to Meſſ. Purdie and Dixon, Printers in Williamſburg, who will convey them to
